English

This week we continued to review all the Jolly Phonics letters/sounds. There will be no English Jolly Phonics 'Show & Tell' for the remainder of the school year. Parents thank you very much for all your support with the Jolly Phonics 'Show & Tell' this year. The children have been so excited every week to share and talk about what they brought to school. It is a great fun way for the children to inquire into letters and sounds of the English alphabet. THANK YOU!

We are continuing to do activities in class to help the children review K1 Chinese characters. Parents you are welcome to use the materials below to help your child review Chinese at home,
